From Ditto —. Announces the capture of La Fortune French Privateer, by His Majesty's ship Concorde.	10th. Do. Do.	419
From—. Concurs in opinion with His Lordship regarding the expediency of allowing two Battalions of the Bombay troops to remain at Goa, but states the probability of the troops having embarked for that Presidency should dispatches not arrive in time enough to prevent their embarkation the necessary steps will be taken to repalce them as early as possible with one of the Battalions expected from Malabar. Proposes employing the Sir Edward Hughes Indiaman to bring up the Battalion in question, and to land it if necessary at Goa.	7th. Do. Do.	436
To—. States that in consequence of disturbances in Travancore it has been found necessary to issue orders for detaining such of the Bombay Troops as have not been embarked until the Military Establishment of that province is reinforced by the troops serving at Goa—notices the discretionary latitude given to this Government by the Governor-General for the eventual detention of the Bombay troops, and requests that the actual state of affair should have made it necessary for this Government to avail itself of that latitude—observes that Lord W. Bentinck recorded the letter from the Government of Bombay of 7th. Ultimo—states the expediency of employing the Sir Edward Hughes Indiaman on the first instance for conveying the troops of this coast serving at Goa to Malabar, which may effect the relief of the Bombay troops without weakening the Military force on Malabar to a hazardous extent.	5th. December Do.	438
C
CEYLON.
From the Governor—. States that a report prevails among the Dutch inhabitants, that the Island will soon be attacked by a combined French and Batavian force, and that the King of Candi is preparing for another irruption into the British possessions, adverts to some circumstances of intelligence which tend to corroborate the abovementioned report and requests that a reinforcement of Europeans may be sent to him when the state of Indian affairs shall render such a measure expedient.	18th. January 1804	51

To Do.—. Informs that in consequence of instructions from the Governor-General in Council the destination of the Company's Ships to Ceylon has been altered, and that they will be dispatched direct to Great Britain, also states the arrangement now proposed to be adopted instead of that which had previously been agreed upon and which is incompatible with the instructions of the Governor-General in Council.	13th. March Do.	72

Subject.	Date of Letter or Cons.	Page.
From—. Acknowledges the receipt of the letter containing papers of intelligence from the Mauritius—states the actual disposition of his squadron, and communicates reports and some authentic information regarding the appearances of French Vessels on the North-Western Coasts of India—notices the capture of a small French Privateer by the Dedaigneuse and from the circumstanecs of the Prize not having yet reached port; apprehends that she has been retaken by the French Crew.	7th. January 1804	75
From—. Expresses his regret that His Majesty's ship's Albion and Sceptre have been detached to the eastward at the suggestion and with the concurrence of Government and explains the disadvantageous effect which that measure will produce on the future disposition of his force.	14th. March Do.	81
To—. Recapitulates the motives which induced Government to recommend to the Senior Captain of His Majesty's Ships Albion and Sceptre to proceed to the Eastward and states that the homeward bound Indiamen will proceed to a short distance from the coast in company with the Russell.	23d. Do. Do.	86
From—. Transmits a duplicate of a former dispatch.	16th. Do. Do.	96
From—. States that he has been joined by His Majesty's ship Concorde Captain Wood, bringing intelligence which almost induced him to retract the dissatisfaction he had expressed at the expedition of the Albion and Sceptre to the Eastward, details the reasons for which he objected to that expedition, has directed the Centurion to bring on the convoy from Bombay, concludes that Captain Williams of the Russel has acceded to the application of this Government that protection might be afforded to the homeward bound Indiamen, and intimates that the Sheerness or Albatross will be at hand to protect the Ceylon at Columbo.	21st. Do. Do.	98
Minute thereon.	31st. Do. Do.	103
From—. In reply to the dispatch of the 13th. instant from this Government, states the convoy which he meant to have afforded (under different circumstances which are particularized) to the homeward bound Indiamen—encloses an order under flying seal to Captain Page of the Caroline to proceed with those ship to 4 South Latitude, and to Captain Williams to remain in Madras roads, according to the requisition of this Government with instructions to the Wilhelmina and Victor to give convoy to the homeward bound ships if the Caroline should not arrive in time to proceed with them.	22d. Do. Do.	105
From—. Intimates that the Centurion has been detained at Bombay, and the Caroline in the Hoogly; recommends if the latter ship should not arrive in time, to give convoy to the homeward bound fleet, and it should be deemed impracticable for the Wilhelmina and Victor to proceed with them that the squad of Indiamen now under dispatch be detained until the sailing of the next squad, when he will be prepared to afford them sufficient convoy and states his sentiments with regard to the manner in which the homeward bound ships ought to be rendezvoused previous to their departure for England.	26th. Do. Do.	109
To—. Announces the departure of the homeward bound ships and states reasons which make it probable that the second fleet of ships to be dispatched from hence to England, will not sail until late in the next month.	6th. April Do.	111
From Admiral Sir Edward Pellew—. Encloses return of the convoy under his charge from Great Britain.	11th. December Do.	465
